UNFCCC CLIMATE TALKS IN BONN:
NGO BRIEFING ON THE NEGOTIATIONS

Civil society expectations for next round of talks as two-week conference kicks off

[Bonn, Germany] Civil society groups attending the next round of UN climate talks in Bonn, Germany, from 14 to 25 May will host a media briefing, webcast live, to outline civil society expectations for a successful outcome of these important negotiations ahead of COP18 in Doha at the end of the year.

International experts from NGOs organized in the Climate Action Network (CAN) and the global TckTckTck campaign will discuss civil society expectations for the Bonn talks, look into some of the political dynamics as governments gather to build on agreements made in Durban last year, and highlight the urgency of progress in the negotiations in light of recent IEA warnings.

The briefing takes place at Room Hayden the UNFCCC conference venue Hotel Maritim in Bonn, on Monday, 14 May, at 10:30 local time (01:30 San Francisco, 04:30 Washington DC, 09:30 London, 11:30 Nairobi, 12:30 Moscow, 14:00 Delhi, 16:30 Beijing, 17:30 Tokyo, 18:30 Sydney)

It will be webcast live at: http://unfccc4.meta-fusion.com/kongresse/sb36/templ/ovw_live.php?id_kongressmain=217

NGO experts on the panel will include Tove Ryding (Greenpeace), Wael Hmaidan (CAN International), and Liz Gallagher (E3G).
