Side-event Monday 3rd Dec. 18:30 – 20:00
by CAN-International and Southern Voices on Climate Change

CLIMATE ACTION AND ADVOCACY IN THE SOUTH:
Civil society activist share achievements and challenges
Hall 5, Side Event Room 2

As results from international climate negotiations have a distant horizon, civil society push governments to take domestic action to increase resilience and protect the vulnerable against the effects of climate change. Achievements and challenges from around the globe are shared in this side-event.

Speakers:

Climate change advocacy in the South – successes, challenges and lessons learnt
By: Peter With, Care Danmark, Southern Voices on Climate Change

Malawi: Monitoring the National Budget for Funding for Climate Change Adaptation
By: Vitumbiko Chinoko, Christian Aid and CISONECC

Indonesia: National policy dialogue as a tool for awareness raising on climate change
By Henriette Imelda, CAN Indonesia

Pacific: Campaigning at the Summit for Most Vulnerable Countries
By Ben Namikin, CAN Kiribati

Niger: Campaign against the World Bank financing adaptation by loans (PPCR)
By Garba Tahirou Issa, African Youth Initiative on Climate Change

Central America: A civil society movement to promote regional action to climate change
By Mónica Lopes Baltodano, Sustainability Watch

Half an hour discussion between the panel and the audience.

Moderator:
Mr. Raju Pandit Chhetri, CAN-International

[CAN logo]
[Southern Voices logo]

[www.climatenetwork.org]  [www.southernvoices.net]